Dominate Others With Fantastic Brute Strength!

"LET ME TEACH YOU THE SIMPLE SECRET PROFESSIONAL MUSCLEMEN USE TO BUILD UP THEIR BODIES IN JUST 90 SECONDS A DAY!"

by Joe Nazario, Mr. U.S.A. Physique Champion, 1977, Mr. International, 1978

Regardless of your age, weight & height, if you can spare 90 seconds a day, you CAN get back into shape!

Achieve these five muscle improvements within one month, or you pay nothing!

- ☐ See your abdomen become a taut wall of muscle!
- ☐ Transform weak arms into pillars of strength!
- ☐ Lift and broaden sagging shoulders!
- ☐ Develop a deep and powerful chest!
- ☐ Strengthen your back, thighs and calves!

I'm a professional body builder. I won the Mr. U.S.A. competition in 1977, and the Mr. International contest in 1978. I'll probably win Mr. Universe this year. I'm also in the exercise and health consulting business in New York City.

So I'm familiar with exercise and body building programs. I've probably tried every single one of them. And do you know something? Not one of them is worth the money you have to pay!

The reason is simple. Every so-called exercise machine, every weight-lifting set ever made works on one of two principles: isometric (putting stress on muscles that do not move) or isotonic (moving muscles under stress).

So, when you pay good money for a machine or a set of fancy equipment, you're buying a gimmick. You can accomplish exactly the same exercise value, get exactly the same results, without the machine—IF YOU KNOW HOW! What's more, since machines and weights put a tremendous amount of stress on weak, underdeveloped muscles, they can actually cause more harm than good.

THE SIMPLE LOCKER ROOM SECRET THAT REALLY WORKS, IN JUST 90 SECONDS

In my years as an athlete and as an "iron pumper," I've seen hundreds of men get ready for strenuous competition. Each had his own personal mantras. Each had favorite warm-up exercises. But over the years, I noticed a simple, common thread that was common to all.

I actually discovered the simple locker room secret that the pros use to build up their bodies in just 90 seconds!

That's right, using my secret, you can exercise all 18 muscle groups in your body in just 90 seconds! Eighteen simple exercises every day, just five seconds on each. And within two weeks or less, you'll begin to notice the difference.

You'll FEEL stronger! You'll LOOK healthier, your body will be FAR MORE ATTRACTIVE! I'm not talking about tiny differences you can measure with a tape—I'm talking about great changes you'll begin to feel yourself, you'll notice in the mirror, your friends will notice on the beach!

WHAT IS MY AMAZING SECRET?

Frankly, it'll cost you $5.00 to find out. After all, a secret as good as this one, a secret that will make your body stronger, healthier, better looking is worth $5.00! But I'll give you a hint. It's a combination of the principles of both isometrics and isotonic. I call it "Tonometrics". And it requires no special equipment, no fancy gym. You can use my "tonometric" techniques and special "tonometric" exercises in your bedroom, bathroom, even in your office during your coffee break!

There are 18 special exercises in all, one for each of the 18 major muscle groups in your body. And each exercise takes just 5 seconds to do.

SEE THE RESULTS YOU CAN EXPECT FROM MY SECRET "TONOMETRIC" EXERCISE PROGRAM—DEPENDENT UPON YOUR AGE:

If you are basically healthy and eat a balanced diet, the percentage of total performance can improve as follows using the "tonometric" program:

Age	Amount of Improvement	Amount of Improvement
15	up to 100%	up to 180%
18	up to 130%	up to 150%
21	up to 150%	up to 100%
25	up to 200%	up to 70%
30	up to 200%	up to 50%

Of course, if you have a weak heart, or any physical disability, you should consult with your physician before beginning this or any other exercise program.

ABSOLUTELY NO RISK TO YOU!

When you send me your $5.00, I'll send you a booklet explaining the "tonometric" concept, and outlining an exercise program using my 18 basic exercises designed to trim down fat and flab, and build up weak, underdeveloped muscles. BUT I WON'T CASH YOUR CHECK FOR 30 DAYS!

That way, you'll have plenty of time to try my amazing "tonometric" program, and decide for yourself if it's everything I say or not. IF YOU'RE NOT ABSOLUTELY THRILLED, SIMPLY RETURN THE MATERIAL AND I'LL SEND BACK YOUR CHECK!

What could be fairer than that? Since you've got nothing to lose, and only a beautiful, strong, firm body to gain, why not send me the coupon, and the check for $5.00, today?

MEET JOE NAZARIO, CREATOR OF THE "TONOMETRIC" SYSTEM

Joe is 29 years old. He presently is in the health food business, and conducts seminars on health, nutrition, and exercise.

Joe has served as a consultant to industry, and gives private body building instruction.

In 1977, Joe won the Mr. U.S.A. Physique Championship, and in 1978 he was named Mr. International.

THE SPIDER'S WEB

c/o MARVEL COMICS GROUP
575 Madison Avenue
New York, New York 10022

MARY WOLFGAN
EDITOR
MARK GRUENWALD
ASSISTANT EDITOR

It's catch up time. What with the extra-length stories in recent issues crowding out our letters pages, we have been falling a bit behind on our mail. And so, this time around we'd like to cover two issues. SPIDER-MAN #196's offbeat "Requiem," featuring our web-weaver's reaction to his Aunt May's apparent demise, and #197's "Kingpin's Midnight Massacre," featuring a knock-down, drag-out battle with that massive master of mayhem, the Kingpin...

Good people,

There have been many traumatic experiences that have had a profound effect on Peter Parker's psyche. But none more devastating than the death of Aunt May. I don't know what spurred you to do it, but I applaud. Aunt May could not physically take any more "near misses" with death. She had better be dead for good, you guys, or there will be hell to pay!

Assuming she is indeed dead, I would like to see the following done: the funeral arrangements made, the funeral held, and Peter's realization that at last he is on his own. Bring in some of Peter's relatives (he must have some left) for the funeral, and give us some realism this once untouched by intruding super-villains or some such. Thanks for listening, and special thanks for being.

Tom Field

Our pleasure, Tom. Being comes quite easy to your bashful bullpenners. Sorry you were as fooled by Mysterio's illusions as ol' Peter was, but at least you were in excellent company. Why, here's another...

Dear Marv, Al, Jim, and Frank,

I knew Dr. Rinehart was the original Mysterio (though I didn't connect the name from SPIDER-MAN #24 at first) and I knew he was trying to get Peter Parker from visiting the nursing home. So I thought last issue's telegram announcing Aunt May's death was phony, a ruse by Mysterio and the burglar to get rid of her nephew Peter. So when I bought SPIDER-MAN #196 and learned that she really is dead, I couldn't quite believe it. I don't know if you planned for readers to think as I did, but since it seemed so unreal to us as well as Peter, you've pulled off a masterstroke in hero-identification.

"Requiem" is the biggest thing to happen in this comic since Gwen Stacy died. Aunt May's role in the book wasn't as big as in the early issues, but still the effect of her death on the web-swinging hero of the book will certainly be as important a development on Spidey's life as Uncle Ben's death. It seems like Spidey will blame himself in part for her death since he should have realized who Rinehart was before. This guilt, as well as vengeance on Mysterio and the Burglar, will serve to motivate Spider-Man as nothing else possibly could. That's what I think you have planned for the 200th issue -- the redefinition of who Spider-Man is, and why.

In a way, Matt, that's what Marv attempted in S-M #200 -- though not at all in the manner you expected. The vengeance/guilt motif which triggered Spider-Man's early crimefighting career has matured into a realization of his responsibility to humankind. To return to his earlier motivation would be... well, a bit retrogressive. Anyway, we were quite surprised that you figured out the Mysterio/Rinehart connection and still thought May Parker's death was legit. The handful of others who caught on that the Master of Illusions was in on the caper concluded as the next correspondent did...

Dear Marv,

You might have many other Spider-fanatics believing Aunt May is dead, but I'm afraid I've unraveled your mystery. When Rinehart was introduced I really didn't pay much attention to him, or at least not until Peter Parker did. After finishing #196, I scrambled through my back issues of SPIDER-MAN until I reached issue #24 where my suspicions were confirmed. Ludwig Rinehart is an alias of the original Mysterio. But wait, wasn't the original Mysterio dead, replaced by a second in issue #141? Well, anyone who could fake the death of another, could easily fake his own death. Therefore, I have evidence to support my original conclusion that Aunt May is not dead.

Tony Sgrague
Morro Bay, CA 93442

Good show, Tony. But as we said, there were a number of you out there who copied onto the Mysterio connection before it was foreshadowed in #197. In interests of fairness, we'll mention you other super-sleuths: Brett Bobbely of Glen Head, NY; Adam White of Nashville, TN; Jim Robinson of Castle Rock, CO; Mark Yalch of Pittsburgh, PA; Ron Drabkin of Los Angeles, CA; and Steve Mann of Lynchburg, VA. Congratulations all!

Dear Marv,

Lately, THE AMAZING SPIDER-MAN has been wonderful. Marv Wolfman has successfully conditioned his writing to fit the book's well-established style. Marv handled Peter Parker's reaction to the apparent death of his aunt very well. I feel it was one of the most important moments in the Marvel Age of Comics. Not only does it seemingly mark the last appearance of one of Marvel's oldest supporting characters, but it shows the maturity and growth of Peter Parker as a human being. For once, he doesn't go through the entire comic blaming himself. He learns what most mature people learn -- that certain circumstances are inevitable, and one must learn to accept that which cannot be changed. Thanks for giving us insights into life.

Barry Thorak

Well, Barry, it's our opinion that even though it turned out that May Parker did not really die, the grief that Peter went through anyway did indeed strengthen his character by showing him that he was strong enough to cope with the inevitable. When Aunt May actually does pass away, Peter will have already had the experience of mourning for her, and it will make the grief more bearable. Now for a few letters about SPIDER-MAN #197...

Dear Marv,

AMAZING SPIDER-MAN #197 was a winner. This battle between the web-slinger and the Kingpin was definitely better than any other that has gone before. You could almost sense that something rare was going to occur by the tale's conclusion since the circumstances of the clash were so special. Spidey was not at his best, what with a broken arm, and a good reason for not wanting to fight K.P. In the first place, Kingpin, on the other hand, was at peak form and had but one objective: to kill Spider-Man to end his criminal career with a bang. From this, we could conclude that the Kingpin had a good chance of winning this final fight, though probably not realizing his deadly goal. Thus the tale's finish was a logical one, consistent with Spidey's track record of not being able to win all his fights. Onward to #200!

Peter Bruno

And then some, Peter. Several correspondents tried to make a big deal out of Spidey's defeat, claiming that it will be a severe blow to his confidence, not realizing as you did, that it's hardly the first time S-M has lost and probably not the last. Under the circumstances, we think Spidey had bigger things on his mind than losing a tussle because of a bad arm.

Dear Marv,

Re: SPIDER-MAN #197. Analysis: Good story, poor ending. I began to enjoy the issue in question right from the start. It had excitement, interesting developments, and a couple of heart-stopping moments. The fight between the Kingpin and Spidey was particularly enjoyable, and I liked a couple of the moves Spidey pulled during the melee. However, halfway through the book, I thought, "Well, Kingy's going to be one step away from killing Spider-Man when the clock suddenly strikes twelve and... no, that's too obvious." Guess what. That and the fact that some of the dialogue was a bit flat are my only complaints. Keith and Jim turned in an excellent job though Kingy's cranium seemed a bit ill-proportioned at times. I expect next issue's tale with Mysterio will surpass this.

Paul G. Johnson
Patchogue, NY 11772

Well, Paul, maybe the depth of Kingpin's affections for his wife were obvious to you, but quite a few of your fellow readers were surprised that K.P. loved Vanessa so much he'd not finish off his greatest foe if it meant losing her love. You're going to have to take our word for it, though, 'cause we're out of room. Till next time!

BULLPEN BULLETINS

STAN'S SOAPBOX:

Okay, Omniscient Ones, here's the news you've been waiting for! The second sensational, senses-staggering Captain America TV spectacular is in the final stages of production, and you can catch it early in January! We don't know the exact date, but it'll be shown on CBS-TV, two hours prime time, so watch the tv listings, hear? I'm cluing you way in advance 'cause no excuses will be accepted if you miss it! Anyone who blows it will just have to answer to the Red Skull! I've already seen the script, and I can tell you it's gotta be one of the most exciting, adult, suspense-packed super-spectaculars you've ever marvelled at! And wait'll you see the scene where Cap, on his cycle, goes over a mile-high cliff towards certain death, only to suddenly — aw, why give it away? Suffice it to say, it's the greatest stuntman shot of the year! That's Captain America — all new — all live — prime time — on CBS-TV — early in January! We'll be lookin' for you!

Incidentally, my newest opus, "The Best of the Worst" is going such great guns at bookstores everywhere that I may have to do a sequel, "The Worst of the Best"! Imagine what comes next! "The Biggest of the Smell"! "The Hottest of the Cold"! "The Goodest of the Bad"! And you thought I couldn't be serious!

Finally — I've received lots of letters lately asking for my views on religion. While I don't feel I oughta use this funky little forum to air my own opinions about such an extremely personal matter, there is one general, non-denominational viewpoint I'd like to mention.

It's pretty hard for me to believe that ever unfolding miracle of the universe — the awesome cycle of birth, and life, and death — the myriad mysteries of nature — and the wonders contained in every atom, every molecule, every living cell in every living creature, just happened to occur by chance! I believe that there is some entity, far wiser and far mightier than we, I feel there must be some divine purpose, some unfathomable plan behind the mystic fabric of mortal existence. And I believe that's about as stuffy and pontifical as I ever wanna sound! So, till we meet again, remember those immortal words of Irving Burwash: "Shaddup awreddy!"

Excelsior!

Stan
